Call Us -- Maybe

The Knit N Purl staff is always thinking about what would interest our customers – here and afar. Martina has played around with a number of ideas one of which is a yarn dyeing experience for those of us who have not done this yet.

We would also like to hear from you about what you want to learn that we don't offer. When you have time, send Arlene an email telling her, and us, what's on your mind. What would you like to learn about knit or crochet that you haven't had a chance to experience yet? Send your responses to hardwick.herring@gmail.com and we will do what we can to make this experience happen for you and your fiber friends.

Cut and past hardwick.herring@gmail.com to your email service to make contact.
