Crochet Ideas

As knitters, there are lots of things to give for the Holidays, and the fact that most of our friends are knitters makes it even easier. Of course, we could knit something for each of those precious children, grandchildren, siblings, spouse and friends (if we start on January 1 of the new year!!) Oh, my! Or we can look at the many tools around for those knitters and future knitters that keep wanting to do what we do: knit, knit, knit.

Martina has given her favorite Knit gifts and her favorite crochet gift items.

1. The Bead Smith Storage Box - I have all my HiyaHiya accessories in one and use another for all my knitting tools. Very versatile and customizable compartments.
2. AddiToGo - These cute hearts keep all your circular projects on your needles, no more sliding off!
3. Coco Knits small colored stitch markers - They slide on your needles like butter!

Martina's Five Favorite Crochet Gifts

1. Soft Touch Crochet Hook - They fit perfectly in your hand and help alleviate hand strain.
2. Diamond Yarn Snip - Ready for snipping all your yarn ends with a point cap.
3. Animal Tape Measure - Super cute and fun! The ear pulls out to measure.
4. Della Q Crochet Roll - The perfect storage to keep all your hooks together and labeled.

4. Buffy Ann Designs Yarn Cozy - Keep your yarn neat and tidy as you knit!

5. Knit-N-Purl Notion bags - All your gadgets in one place and a keepsake from KNP!

5. Aalta Project Bag - Various lambs and the right size up to 2 skein projects.

Arlene likes the::

The Desktop Caddy allows me the organization that I can't achieve on my own. There are 8 outer pockets and three separate, large sections inside which allow me to have tools on the outside and containers for those little items inside.

The Chibi Jumbo Darning Needle is a must for me. The gold ones have a bent end that helps me easily working those tails that need to stay where I put them when all of the knitting is done on a project.

Bryspun Cable Needles have been a favorite of mine since I began knitting cables in my projects. This pack has three different sizes that seem to work for any size yarn you might be using. They don't snag or fall out of the knitting and are Made in USA.

Coco Knits Markers have a unique quality that I do love: they are magnetic and easier to keep track of while working with them. I like both sizes but use the larger ones more often in my projects.

The Coffee Mug always has a prominent place near where I work. It may have coffee, tea, or some other liquid libation that seems to help whatever mood I am in at the time.

Molly chose her favorite gifts from the tools and accessories knitters use to help them create with the least number of problems.

Her list follows:

Thimble Pad

I love this because it helps me protect my fingers from the small, sharp needles that I love to use.

Young Living DEEP RELIEF essential oils

I keep this in my knitting bag and use daily. Helps me de-stress at the table.

Addi Crochet Hook

If you've taken my "Oops!" Class then you know about this product. These are my go-to tools for picking up stitches. I have 2 or 3 within arms length at all times.

Wrupture from Eucalan

I absolutely love the clean fragrance of this product and use it on everything I block.

Addi size 0 or 1 needle

I like to have these in my bag in case I ever need to add an "afterthought" lifeline or if I have to rip out. It makes life easier when picking up stitches and eliminates "chasing" your stitches down a row..

What a great choice of gifts. I hope I'm on her list!

Ingrid's Fav's

Eucalan no rinse wash in Lavender, perfect for soaking your knits and getting ready for blocking, love the lavender scent.

Hand crafted Stitch Markers- there are lots of themes to choose from- beach, knitting, cats,dogs, and more.

Hiya Hiya tiny snips- these are perfect for your small projects on the go; you can take them on a plane, and they come in different animals- cats, dogs, octopus to name a few

CoCo knits small stitch fixer are a must have to keep with you to grab those stitches that jump ship and try to run!

Craft Caddy, we have many to choose from. This is a medium size and will hold all your bits and pieces- yarn, needles, anything you need for fixing those oopsies.
